Building a Strong Network Forum

This past month, we hosted an impactful forum on 'Building Strong Business Network' with three outstanding speakers, Tom Black, Tinsely Dempsey and Jason Weiss. They shared their expertise on how to not only be a better connector to others, but how to be a better person to be connected with.

Happy Hour

Our monthly Happy Hours are what we're known for — vibrant, high-energy gatherings that continue to grow in size and diversity. We love seeing new faces and creating space for real connection. It's the perfect chance to expand your network, raise your visibility, and meet a wide range of professionals. Whether you're a regular or first-timer, you'll leave with something valuable — and someone new in your corner.

Luncheons

Our member-hosted luncheons are intimate, discussion-driven gatherings designed to foster authentic connection and visibility. Led by Jason, these conversations go beyond small talk—offering a meaningful space to share your story, elevate your professional presence, and build genuine relationships within the Symphony Six community.

Michael is a seasoned financial professional leading business development for Calvetti Ferguson's new Nashville office. With 20 years in banking and 6 in consulting, he helps business owners and executives build the right team of trusted advisors focused on long-term value. Drawing on his background in engineering, capital markets, M&A, strategy, sales, accounting, and wealth management, Michael delivers strategic advice to entrepreneurs and PE-backed clients to help grow and protect their ventures. Beyond his role at Symphony Six, he's active with ACG, XPX, PDA, and supports LaunchTN, GNPCA, and the Nashville Healthcare Council. Michael and his family recently moved from Atlanta to Nashville, where they've enjoyed the warm community — and his kids especially love catching Vanderbilt games while excelling in their own sports.
